WPA ROLLS MAY BE REDUCED

Thousands To Be Dropped To Make Appropriation Last Until March 1, Next

WASHINGTON, (UP)—The Works Progress Administration, it was learned today, is preparing to drop thousands of persons from its relief rolls to make its $1,500,000,000 appropriation last until March 1, 1939.

This plan was revealed by reliable sources who said that WPA Administrator Hopkins might issue a formal statement in a few days. Administration officials said that the "truly needy" would be kept on the rolls and that those who have good prospects of employment would be dropped.

Such a step would follow instructions by President Roosevelt last month to make the full relief appropriation suffice until March. In his annual budget revision early last summer, however, he estimated that an additional $500,000,000 would be required for relief expenditures through June 30, 1939, the end of the current fiscal year.

Folsom Rancher Is Drowned

T. C. Rutherford Trapped As Car Backs Into Irrigation Ditch; Son Escapes

ROSEVILLE, (UP)—Trapped in his submerged automobile, Thomas C. Rutherford, 79, died late yesterday while his son frantically sought help.

The Folsom area rancher was turning his car around on a narrow road and accidentally pushed the accelerator instead of the brake, backing the machine into an irrigation ditch. Earl Rutherford, 39, his son, extricated himself from the wreck but was unable to pull the older man to safety.

In desperation, he pulled off a spare wheel and propped his father's head above water while he ran to a ranch for assistance. Rutherford was dead when help arrived.

COUNTY SHARES ACTIVELY IN PROVISIONS OF HOUSING ACT

Donald Renshaw, California State Director for the National Emergency Council, announced today that the record of actual business on the books of the Federal Housing Administration for the country as a whole and for California as a state, shows definitely that its efforts at such housing improvements have met with substantial success.

As of December 31, 1937, 228,673 mortgages, amounting to $935,963,053 had been accepted for insurance under Title II and under the original provisions of Title I, which expired April 1, 1937 but were revised February 3, 1938, 1,449,373 modernizations and repair notes, amounting to $560,751,206 were insured.

These figures show that California has received benefits totalling more than twice as much as the State of New York and nearly three times as much as the State of Ohio.

In El Dorado County, 583 applicants took advantage of the provisions of Title One of the act and notes were insured in the amount of $351,752.61. There were twelve who took advantage of the terms of Title Two of the act, erecting homes valued at $43,700.

Native Sons To Name Candidates Tonight

The nomination of candidates for election to office for the ensuing term will be a major item of business at tonight's regular meeting of Placerville Parlor No. 9, N. S. G. W., according to George Duffy, president.

As a special entertainment feature there will be four reels of motion pictures, Mr. Duffy reports.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Salvater were here from Auburn Sunday visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Edith Miller.

SUCCESSOR?—With the retirement on January 1 of Homer S. Cummings as United States Attorney General, observers generally agree that Robert H. Jackson, above, Solicitor General, will be his successor, although President Roosevelt has not given any such indication. Mr. Cummings retires to private life.

ITALIANS BAN NEWS REPORTER

Correspondent For Chicago Paper 10th To Be Expelled During Current Year

ROME, (UP)—Frank Smothers, Rome correspondent of the Chicago Daily News, was ordered today to leave Italy before the end of the month.

Smothers was informed by the ministry of propaganda that he must leave the country because of the "unfriendly tone" of his dispatches, particularly the one of November 16 concerning the ratification of the Anglo-Italian pact.

The American embassy intervened for Smothers with the foreign office. American charge d'affaires, Edward Reed, was informed that the order was irrevocable.

Smothers came to Rome after service in the Far East. He will leave soon for Paris to await a new assignment.

He will be the 10th foreign correspondent expelled by Italy this year.

SEAL PURCHASE SOLE SUPPORT OF WORK AGAINST "T.B."

The only support of the programs of the 63 local tuberculosis associations in California, now working to prevent, control and eventually reduce tuberculosis to a minimum is derived from the annual Christmas Seal Sale, according to Fontaine Johnson, general counsel of the California Tuberculosis Association.

In a statement from Sacramento heralding the Thanksgiving Day opening of the sale, Johnson revealed that a large portion of the work of the sixty-three local tuberculosis associations in California, even in the annual campaign, is performed gratis by volunteer workers.

"Public sympathy and support are the foundation of the anti-tuberculosis movement," Johnson said. "Widely coordinated though its program be, it enjoys no endowment, receives no great bequests, has no billionaire 'angel' to sponsor the program of activities which protect the homes of California from tuberculosis. The only people who make that program possible are those who pay for the Christmas Seals. These are the public-spirited citizens who provide, for all the homes in their respective communities, protection against the inroads of the dread white plague."

Victor McKelvey Gets 30 Days In Jail

Victor McKelvey, who pleaded guilty Tuesday morning before Justice of the Peace T. F. Lewis to a charge of petty theft, was sentenced to serve thirty days in the county jail. McKelvey had been arrested last week by Sheriff George M. Smith. The sentence of the court did not make any allowance for the time McKelvey spent in jail before arraignment, being "thirty days from date."

Farm Advisor Ivan Lilley was in the Fairplay section on Tuesday morning.

$300,000 LOSS IN XMAS MAIL

Carelessness In Addressing Cards, Parcels Cited In Plea For Co-Operation

"The American public addresses Christmas cards so carelessly that three and a half million of them, representing cash amounting to $300,000 including postage, are never delivered."

So declared Postmaster Joseph Scherrer on Tuesday in issuing an appeal to the patrons served by the Placerville postoffice to protect their own interests and help the postoffice department by:

1. Writing addresses plainly and carefully;
2. Making sure that every package bears a return address;
3. Mailing as early as is conveniently possible.

Postmaster Scherrer also submitted a list of postage rates from which the following, as being particularly applicable to the Christmas season are taken:

Postcards including greeting cards (in the form of post cards) may be sent as first class mail at one cent each;

Soil District Meeting Held

Group Adjourns For Study Following Explanation Of Organization Rules

A group of ranchers and stockmen of the county who are interested in the proposal that a county-wide soil conservation district be formed, met at the office of the Farm Advisor Monday night to hear the organization plan explained by R. B. Cozens, state co-ordinator under the soil conservation district act.

Following the explanation, the group expressed particular interest in that feature of the proposal relating to an assessment of up to 2 per cent of the land values in the district for operating expenses; and to the provision for the possible expenditure of additional moneys upon a vote of members of the district.

There was a general discussion of the form of organization following which the meeting adjourned for further study of the finance provisions of the act.

NEGRO "QUIETLY HUNG" BY POSSE OF 200 IN MISSISSIPPI

WIGGINS, Miss., (UP)—Sheriff S. C. Hinton said today that a volunteer posse "just quietly hung" Wilmer McGowan, 24, Negro suspected of having raped a 74-year-old white woman.

There were about 200 men in the "posse" he said, and he had been leading them in the search for McGowan. After a few hours, when the Bloodhounds were unable to find the trail, the sheriff left the posse and "went down to the sawmill to investigate a report that McGowan was working there, he stated."

He said the posse must have found McGowan near his grandmother's house when he was gone to back he found the body hanging to a tree. There were no bullets in the body, and no evidence of torture, he said.

Building, Retail Trade Lead Business Gain

Continued improvement during October in several important fields of business throughout California and the Far West was reported by Guy E. Wentworth local branch manager of the Bank of America.

According to the latest Business Review just compiled by the bank's analysis and research department, increasing prosperity was shared by building construction, retail trade, loadings and bank debits.

Miss Helen Heilbroner, of San Francisco, is to spend the Thanksgiving weekend with Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Rantz.

Garden Valley Lady Corrects Quilt "Error"

Sometimes, when a person undertakes to be spokesmen for an organization, he gets the blame for what's said and done; and sometimes he also gets the credit for what's done.

The latter is true in the case of Mrs. Daisy Rolfe, as Garden Valley, who was recently named as the winner of a $5 merchandise award from the Albert Simon store for entering the best quilt at the county fair.

Mrs. Rolfe hastens to explain that the quilt was made by the women of the Home Economics Club of Marshall Grange, and straightens the matter out as follows:

"The quilt was made by the members of the Home Economics Club of Marshall Grange, Garden Valley. When it was entered in the fair, someone had to sign the slip and that is how my name got into it. I am a member of the club and am proud of our work, as I know the other ladies are, too; so please make the correction."

C. OF C. MAPS ELECTION

December Meeting Canceled; Seven Directors To Be Chosen By Referendum

Preparations for the annual election of the Chamber of Commerce directors were made at the regular meeting of the organization Monday night. In the absence of President Reuel Whigham, owing to illness, the meeting was conducted by John A. Raffetto, Jr.

A committee to certify the list of members eligible to election as directors was named with Ogden Hook chairman, and including A. H. Murray, Jr., and Lloyd Raffetto.

The organization will elect seven directors this year, there being eight hold-over members of the directorate who were elected last year. The seven whose terms expire are Henry S. Lyon, Homer P. Brown, M. T. Kelly, L. A. Raffetto, L. J. Anderson, Guy E. Wentworth and Charles Doe.

The election will be conducted by referendum ballot during the month of December.

The membership committee, Bert Pierroz, chairman, reported five new members whose applications were approved. They are, Lester Longhurst, S. E. Price, Ralph Plimpton, Ray T. Walters and M. T. Burrow. The application of the state chamber of commerce for a fee of $25 to be applied to winter sports publicity costs was tabled until the January meeting.

Following the usual custom, the organization voted to cancel the regular December meeting.

The organization received, and the secretary read a resolution from the Placerville Shakespeare Club in which the club went on record as being opposed to the suggestion that the name of the community be changed from Placerville to "Hangingtown."

RESCUE MAN JAILED 100 DAYS FOR DRIVING WHILE DRUNK

John Smith, of Rescue, arrested Monday evening by Officers Charles Flick, of the state highway patrol, was found guilty on a charge of drunken driving when he appeared Tuesday morning before Justice of the Peace Will G. Taylor, at Shingle and was sentenced to 100 days in the county jail in lieu of a fine set at $200.

Arrested with Smith was E. Dunker, who was given a suspended sentence when found guilty of being drunk on a public highway. The sentence was for sixty days, suspended.

The court tempered Dunker's punishment under the county ordinance governing the case, since the defendant is under a physician's care.

SACRAMENTO, (UP)—It was poor policy for Joe Pena to pilfer $1.65 from the pocket of Joseph Foster while Detectives George Kaminsky and Jack Kenaley stood nearby.

Pena was caught, a jury found him guilty, and Judge Dal M. Lemmon sentenced him to Folsom prison.

ROLL CALL IS NEAR END

The building committee met with Chairman Cecil A. Barker in charge and numerous proposed sites for the building which the society hopes to erect were discussed.

WOMAN JUROR WIDOW "BY GOD"—NOT "BY LAW"

OROVILLE, (UP)—Judge Harry Deirup thought he misunderstood Mrs. Mary E. Hale when the prospective juror in a murder trial was asked if she were a widow and replied simply, "By God."

"I beg your pardon?" queried the judge.

"I am a widow by God and not by law," the woman explained.

ROCKEFELLER ESTATE SHRINKS TO SIX MILLIONS

NEW YORK (UP)—Out of the $26,410,837 estate left by John D. Rockefeller, Sr., about $6,000,000 will remain for the beneficiaries after payment of estate taxes, it was disclosed today when transfer documents were filed.

"PARTY FATAL" TO 3 CONVICTS

22 Ill, 12 Seriously At Kansas Prison From Drinking Wood Alcohol

LANSING, Kan., (UP)—Three prisoners at the Kansas state penitentiary died today and 22 others were ill, 12 seriously, from drinking a solution of wood alcohol and other chemicals they mistook for a harmless beverage.

Lion President Dillinger complimented the club on the large turnout of members for the cast and urged those who have not yet made their appearances to attend the rehearsals, which are being held nightly at the Eagles Hall.

Miss Margaret Hoobing, who is directing the home talent presentation, spoke briefly concerning the progress of the work and a report by Lion Ripley, in charge of ticket sales, showed that Roy Strum leads the club in the sales of tickets to the event, having disposed of his "quota" and called for additional tickets.

Tickets for the show may be obtained from any member of the club.

In observance of Thanksgiving Week, the Lions had a delicious turkey dinner "with all the trimmings," and the entertainment committee displayed motion pictures of the past two "sugar bowl" football games.

Directors of the club met following the club meeting.

CARSON VALLEY INDIANS SAY NATIVE HERB, BREWED AS TEA, HAS EFFECT OF ENGENDERING GOOD WILL TOWARD ALL

CARSON CITY, Nev., (UP)—The old frontier day proverb that "the only good Indian is a dead one" is being disproved among the Washoe

Indians of Nevada, who along with many other tribes of the west and southwest, still make use of a native drug known as "peodi."

"Peodi" is an herb, and when brewed into tea and drunk, has the astonishing effect, according to observations, of not only making bad Indians good but good Indians better.

So far as can be ascertained, it has no harmful effects on the Indians physically, while the psychological effects are largely of a religious character.

According to Indians, the feelings engendered by the use of the beverage are those of goodness, a desire for kindness toward all other men and promptings to perform good acts to less fortunate people.

The herb is a native of Arizona and is used there by some of the tribes in religious rites to stimulate brotherly love.

PLACER GROWERS WANT
"TEETH" IN SHIPPER
AGREEMENT

The insufficiency of a gentlemen's agreement in solving the present conditions of the deciduous fruit grower was stressed by the members of the Deciduous Fruit Growers Protective League of Placer County at a recent meeting held in Newcastle.

The gentlemen's agreement subject was brought before the league for discussion when it was reported that the formation of clearing house among shippers was proceeding along this idea. Those attending the meeting were strongly in favor of an agreement which provided for teeth and penalties against any of the shippers who would violate its provisions.

At the conclusion of the meeting the secretary was empowered to draw up for the press release the following statement:

"The members of the Deciduous Fruit Growers Protective League of Placer County are still in the same frame of mind since its organization favored and recommended a clearing house in the deciduous fruit business. It has been the contention of this league that the shippers would formulate some kind of a clearing house. If the league has not been mis-informed, at their last meeting held in Newcastle, it was reported that to date only a gentlemen's agreement has been reached. This action is not sufficient.

"Gentlemen's agreements are all right but we as growers have experienced similar things in the past. Therefore, such agreements do not meet with the approval of the Deciduous Fruit Growers Protective League of Placer County, which was very plainly expressed at the recent meeting. It is the belief of the league we as growers should be considered as well as shippers in formulating such an organization, because the growers are more familiar with the cost of production. The growers are in accord with a marketing agreement, and clearing house embracing marketing and control. We as growers strongly recommend a police power with rigid strength and teeth in it binding the shippers to the clearing house.

"The Deciduous Fruit Growers Protective League of Placer County has reached beyond its infancy and is gaining by leaps and bounds. At present it represents over 65 per cent of the fruit acreage of Placer County totaling over 17,000 acres."

Sports Parade

By HENRY McLEMORE

HOUSTON, Tex. (UP)—In six minutes, or just about the same length of time it takes to boil two three-minute eggs, the Texas Christian University varsity showed me more football last Saturday afternoon than I had seen in six entire earlier games.

Before I settled down in the press box to watch T. C. U. against Rice I had seen Columbia, Yale, Colgate, Oregon, Fordham, Pennsylvania, Navy, Alabama, Tulane, Vanderbilt and Tennessee in action. Columbia had shown me a fine passer in Luckman, Fordham a sizzling attack centering around Eshmont, Alabama a staunch defense, and Tennessee a strong, balanced club without any real weakness. As a matter of fact, when I left Nashville a week ago I felt that in Tennessee I had seen the best team in the country, one capable of licking any club.

But T. C. U. against Rice changed what passes for my mind and changed it in six minutes—six minutes which saw horned furies make three touchdown marches of 63 yards, 68 yards, and 52 yards, respectively.

They required but eleven plays in the first drive, seven in the second, and seven in the third. A good, game Rice team was helpless in the face of the T. C. U. attack, which moved through the air and across the ground with equal facility. The most impressive of the three drives was the second one when, as if to prove that Davey O'Brien's passing arm was not the entire offense, the Christians went the full distance the hard way, through the line. Not a single pass was tossed in this assault, the backs tucking the ball under their arms and sweeping through holes torn open for them by the big and mobile line.

These three touchdown forays followed an opening one that netted a score when the game scarcely was under way. The first time they got the ball the Christians moved 56 yards down the field in eight plays, three of them being passes by the sharpshooting O'Brien. T. C. U. lacked nothing when it was on the march. Blocking was savage and sure, there was speed to spare, both in the line and backfield, and the men handled themselves with cool assurance. There was no hurry, no fuss, no kicking of pants or slapping of backs. They were workmen, doing a job well.

This poise is the answer to the team's success, according to Coach Dutch Meyer.

"We discourage inspirational football," Meyer told me, "and stress poise and the efficient carrying out of assignments. We used to try and key the boys up, but that didn't work. It once cost us a conference championship, in fact. That was the year S. M. U. beat us with what I think an inferior team. We hopped the boys up for that game and put them under pressure even before they got on the field. As a result, they lost their balance, played with their hearts instead of their heads, so to speak, and were beaten. It was the fault of the coaching staff and we learned our lesson."

Meyer, a quiet, modest fellow, sincerely believes that the present T. C. U. team is the best ever to play in the southwest conference.

He says that it never has been extended this season, and so never has really played all the football it is capable of.

In O'Brien he believes he has as fine a back as he ever coached. And that his center, Ky Aldrich, is one of the really great all-around players in southwest history.

"O'Brien can pass as well as Baugh ever did," Meyer said. "I won't say he is better, because I just don't believe any man will ever throw the ball any better than Sam. Despite his size O'Brien has taken just two time outs in eight years of football. He is a fine blocker, a strong, shifty runner, and a brilliant caller of plays. Just as O'Brien is the key man of our offense, Aldrich is the key man of the defense. He is far superior to Darrell Lester, our center who was named All-America a few years ago."

Oh, yes, T. C. U. wants to go to the Rose Bowl.

And if it does, here's a tip to the team that is chosen to play it—don't agree to any winner-take-all basis, because you might have to walk home.

Office Girls Find Weekends Best for Beauty Routines

By JACQUELINE HUNT

THE conscientious business girl who must spend long hours at her office and has little time for beauty care at night should set aside her weekends for a bit of self-pampering and for renovating her wardrobe.

MISS HUNT

If you are lucky enough to have Saturday off, try to do most of your beauty chores early, then you will be ready for an evening date or an outing or something you enjoy on Sunday. No matter how tired you are from the strain of a busy week you will blossom under the ministrations of special baths, a shampoo, an extra careful manicure, a pedicure and maybe a sunbath before your own open window or under a sunlamp.

With Saturday mornings free you can begin your beauty repairs on Friday evening. Brush your hair until your scalp tingles and massage a liberal amount of hot oil into it, pinning a towel over your pillow so it will not be stained with oil while you sleep. You will find that your morning shampoo leaves your hair softer and more lustrous than if you had shampooed immediately.

Partly dry your hair, then set the waves and put the curlers in. When the hair is completely dry remove the curlers and slip in a few tiny hairpins, if necessary, then without combing out the waves and curls slip a pretty net cap over your hair. After this you might slip back into bed for another nap if you wish or even spend the rest of the day in bed, taking a leisurely beauty treatment.

Give yourself a leisurely facial!

before returning to bed, however, so the softening and stimulating creams can do their good work while you rest. Have a light lunch of bouillon or milk and crackers. If you do not feel like sleeping, relax anyway or read something that will take your mind off your problems.

During the afternoon when you feel really wide-awake, you might shape your eyebrows by careful plucking and have a thorough manicure. If you plan to go out in the evening, you might use a stimulating cream mask rather than a softening one. Have a tub scented with your most precious bath oil or crystals.

The weekend is a good time to attend to such details as removing unwanted hair, an operation that should never be hurried whether you use a safety razor or a good depilatory. If you use the latter be sure to follow the manufacturers' directions both as to the use of the product and as to how soon afterward you can apply a deodorant.

Sometimes during the weekend go over your clothing. Air your woolen and silk dresses and give your clothes closet a thorough cleaning and airing. Wash all soiled lingerie, and if it needs ironing roll in heavy Turkish towels for half an hour or so. Mend the things that need mending and sew fresh lingerie touches on your office frocks.

After a leisurely Saturday you will probably want to get out Sunday morning and take a good long hike, go skating if possible, or, if not go through a brisk exercise routine in your own room before an open window. Have dinner with the family if you live at home or go out with a friend if you are a "live-alone" girl, then back to bed for an afternoon nap with cream on your face and soothing eye packs over your eyes.

A gain of 1553 members for 1938 over 1937 was reported by the California Farm Bureau Federation as its fiscal year closed.

Promotion Boosts Pear Sales, Tri-State Bureau Reports

That Pear Bureau promotion

tangibly increases the sale of Pacific Coast pears is indicated in a report just received from Roy Webster, Eastern Manager of the Oregon-Washington-California Pear Bureau, located in Philadelphia.

Mr. Webster was sent to Philadelphia by the Pear Bureau as it was felt that Philadelphia has big potentialities for increasing pear sales.

For the month of October, 1938, an increase of 38 per cent in total cars sold was made over the same period in 1937.

"More significant than this increase of 38 per cent in total cars sold in the same period in this year compared to last," says Mr. Webster, "is the fact that despite a 16 per cent reduction in available supplies of pears for October, 1938, in Eastern markets—sales in Philadelphia show an increase of 13 per cent in Bose pears sold, an increase of 42 per cent in Anjou pears sold, and an increase of 38 per cent in total pears sold.

The pear bureau participated in the Philadelphia Food Show which lasted the two middle weeks of October, and backed it up by newspaper, car card, and radio advertising, plus intensive dealer service contact work by Mr. Webster and his assistant, Mr. Thomas Boyd, all but the food show being continuous this season.

Fugitive Arrested In Oregon Courtroom

a doubly important job. They suddenly become The Good Providers for a nation in gala mood, expectant of a sumptuous table.

Thanksgiving Day, to the world at large, means a time for feasting—for turkey and giblets, for roast duck, or chicken; for chestnut dressing, cranberry sauce, celery and olives and all the fixings.

And the farmer works under double pressure—from sunup to sundown—to provide a festive table.

What, then, has the farmer to be thankful for as he labors to insure a tempting Thanksgiving Day dinner for his city patrons and his friends and neighbors?

California farmers, first of all, have reason to be thankful that California's agricultural income, during years of depression and uncertainty, has exceeded that of any other state in the nation.

Without minimizing losses or glossing over difficulties, California's farming industry—as compared with that of the nation at large—has been in exceedingly fortunate position.

And California agriculture has gone farther on the march to recovery, even though the process may seem slow and beset by many obstacles, than agriculture in any other area. Partly due to natural advantages—fertile soil, abundant water, a smiling sun and excellent growing conditions—and partly due, too, to its well-established, well-advertised "better products," backed up by splendid marketing facilities, California has held fast to its position as No. 1 Farm State in the nation.

There are, to be sure, many crops in California which are over-produced. It would be foolhardy to deny it. In many branches, prices have returned less than cost of production and farmers have tightened their belts, holding on courageously for an upturn in the market.

But farm debt in California is at the lowest point in 17 years!

Farm marketing co-ops, in California, are the strongest in the United States, with a record for solvency and security which equals that of the State's best banking institutions.

Farm labor troubles, after a long period of unrest, are noteworthy by their absence.

And farm land values, slowly but surely, are staging a comeback.

It is not the purpose of this writer, simply because the Thanksgiving season is near, to blot out the bad and enlarge on the good California agriculture is still far from being out of the woods. But California agriculture is basically sound; it is founded on efficient, high-grade production and business-like, economical marketing. And the State's farming industry will climb back to solidarity as rapidly as improvement in urban purchasing power creates a normal demand for farm produce.

On the practical side—and of current importance—California farmers have this to be thankful for, too, that the dangerous "Single Tax," which would have loaded farm lands with exorbitant taxation, has been overwhelmingly repudiated by California voters; that the "30 Every Thursday" pension scheme, which would have played havoc with the state's entire economic structure, has been defeated; and that the Garrison Revenue Bond Act, which would have made it easier to mortgage California farms with public indebtedness, has been decisively beaten.

The California farmer, as he plays his role as the unseen host at the Thanksgiving dinners, can be grateful that foreign armies do not threaten his soil; that dictators cannot requisition his crops; that tax theorists cannot confiscate his lands—and that When Winter Comes, Spring Cannot Be Far Behind!

Tuesday is always "blue Monday" on the radio for us, because the next Monday evening seems so far away, but there's a symphonic serenade on KFBK at 6 o'clock that may serve as a starter.

Bob Hope's show comes to KPO at 8 o'clock.

After that? Well, there's fifteen minutes of Phil Harris at ten o'clock, KSFO.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Thanksgiving" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon Thanksgiving Day, November 24, in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

The Golden Text will be: "Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most High" (Ps. 50:14).

Other Bible citations will include: "What shall I render unto the Lord for all his benefits toward me? . . . I will pay my vows unto the Lord now in the presence of all his people . . . I will offer to thee the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of the Lord" (Ps. 116:12, 14, 17).

The Lesson-Sermon also will include the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Christians rejoice in secret beauty and bounty, hidden from the world, but known to God. Self-forgetfulness, purity, and affection are constant prayers. Practice not profession, understanding not belief, gain the ear and right hand of omnipotence and they assuredly call down infinite blessing." (p. 15).

OCTOBER GAS SALES IN STATE SHOW GAIN OF 5.37 PER CENT

SACRAMENTO—October was the fifth month in 1938 during which gasoline sales increased, it was announced in the monthly report issued this week by the State Board of Equalization.

The October gasoline tax was assessed on the distribution of 151,338,870 gallons. The total tax amounted to $4,540,166.10 as compared with $4,308,581.28 for the same month of the previous year, a gain of 5.37 per cent. The month's revenue also was well above the $4,277,422.50 collected on September sales.

Other months which showed gains over the same period of 1937 included February, April, June and August.
